श्री अबू आसिम आज़मी : सभापति महोदय, मैं आपके माध्यम से माननीय मंत्री जी से जानना चाहता हूं कि इस समय उम्मीदवार या कैंडीडेट के खर्च की सीमा तो तय है किन्तु राजनैतिक दलों यानी पॉलिटिकल पार्टीज के चुनावी खर्चो पर कोई सीमा नही है । इस संबंध में मैं मंत्री महोदय से जानना चाहता हूं कि क्या सरकार इस पर कोई अंकुश लगाना चाहती है? यदि हां तो उसका विवरण क्या है और यदि नही तो उसके कारण क्या है?

شری ابو عاصم اعظمی: سبھا پتی مہودے، میں آپ کے مادھیم سے مانئے منتری جی جاننا چاہتا ہوں کہ اس وقت امیدوار یا کینڈیڈیٹ کے خرچ کی سیما تو طے ہے۔ لیکن راجنیتک دلوں یعنی پالیٹکال پارٹیز کے چناوی خرچوں پر کوئی سیما نہیں ہے۔ اس سمبندھ میں منتری مہودے سے جاننا چاہتا ہوں کہ کیا سرکار اس پر کوئی انکش لگانا چاہتی ہے؟ اگر ہاں تو اس کا وورن کیا ہے اور اگر نہیں تو اس کے کارن کیا ہیں؟

SHRI H.R. BHARDWAJ: Sir, it is not correct to say that there is no ceiling. The total amount that can be spent in a parliamentary election as well as in Assemblies is prescribed and the total amount from both sources- candidate as well as from the party- has to be in that. So, there is a limit prescribed by the law and the party as well as the candidate have to go by the law. Only exception has been made with regard to travelling expenses of political leaders. They are not shown in that expenditure. This law was made by the earlier Government in 2003 and it is now in force.

श्री अबू आसिम आज़मी : मेरा दूसरा सप्लीमेंटरी प्रश्न है कि उम्मीदवारों के चुनावी खर्च की सीमा बहुत कम है । इसको बढ़ाने की क्या सरकार की कोई योजना है? यदि है तो इसे कब तक लागू किया जाएगा? यह मैं आपके माध्यम से जानना चाहता हूं ।

شری ابو عاصم اعظمی: میرا دوسرا سپلیمینٹ کوشچن یہ ہے کہ امیدواروں کے چناوی خرچ کی سیما بہت کم ہے۔ اس کو بڑھانے کی کیا سرکار کی کوئی یوجنا ہے؟ اگر ہے تو اسے کب تک لاگو کیا جائے گا؟ یہ میں آپ کے مادھیم سے جاننا چاہتا ہوں؟

SHRI H.R. BHARDWAJ: Sir, this is revised after every successive elections.

SHRIMATI SUKHBUNS KAUR: Sir, the Election Commission had called an all-party meeting. But, apparently, there were divergent views and no consensus could be reached. I would like to know from the hon. Minister what steps he is taking to evolve a consensus and whether the State funding would be effected in the forthcoming Assembly elections.

SHR H.R. BHARDWAJ: Sir, the Government is very keen to partially assist the political parties in funding. Sir, she is our senior colleague and she already knows that it started in early 70s, this reform that the expenditure which is borne in the election, should be provided by the State. And, in 1972, there was a Parliamentary Committee. Thereafter, we had the famous Inderjit Gupta Committee. They made a recommendation only suggesting that we should fund the elections in kind, not in terms of money. So, recently, the Cabinet approved those proposals and I submitted those proposals to the Election Commission for discussing them with various political parties. I have not yet received the minutes of the Election Commission or the consensus arrived at in that meeting. But, the Government is very eager to assist political parties by partially providing funds.

SHRI NILOTPAL BASU: Sir, some of us also attended that all-party meeting which was called by the Election Commission the other day. And, our sense is not that the Government has really decided the totality of the proposals by the Inderjit Gupta Committee. Now, the proposal for State funding of elections was to really bring down the poll expenditure overall and to create a level-playing field. Now, the hon. Minister himself admitted that use of helicopters and private jets for certain parties is exempt from the expenditure during elections. Now, in that case, the fund that will be advanced by the Governments, whether it is the Central Government or the State Government, will actually act as a subsidy for those political parties in so far as the total expenditure is concerned and whether this distorted form of State funding was in the mind of Inderjit Gupta Committee which also included the present Prime Minister.

SHRI H.R. BHARDWAJ: Sir, it is very well known that two years ago, we discussed electoral reforms in this House and certain provisions were approved. So far as the use of helicopters or aircraft is concerned, it was discussed in this House and these were approved because of the security considerations of very senior leaders including the Prime Minister. They have to be provided these facilities-security as well as the transport. That has been exempted and other ceiling has remained the same. As a matter of fact, I am very happy to tell this House that the ceiling of Rs. 25 lakhs or so, in a parliamentary election, is being adhered to by the Election Commission. Earlier, there was no limit on party expenditure and the explanation that allowed this was done away with in the law made in 2003. So, the process of electoral reforms reducing the influence of big money is an ongoing process. The idealism, which we want to arrive at, has not yet come. And, I hope that the consensus of political parties one day will provide us and it requires the support of all political parties. Divergent views are there. All these Leftist parties have their own views, but Inderjit Gupta Committee was uniformally accepted and the required partial funding which the Government has approved. Once the Election Commission gives the nod that are ready, we will be very willing to do that. And, any other consensus which this House resolves, we will implement that.

श्री सभापति : माननीय मंत्री महोदय, इसको फाइनल शेप देने से पहले क्या यह उचित होगा कि आप इस सदन में इस विषय के ऊपर चर्चा करा लें?

SHRI H.R. BHARDWAJ: I am ready, in whatever form it comes. As a matter of fact, it will require certain amendments in the law. We will do that.
